Report on Anti-Ragging Orientation Programme
Date: August 18th, 2023
Time: 11:30 AM
Venue: College Auditorium

OBJECTIVE:

In line with the University Grants Commission's (UGC) commitment to eradicating the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions, an Anti-Ragging Orientation Programme was conducted on August 18th, 2023, at the college auditorium. This event aimed to raise awareness about the significance of preventing ragging and to introduce the roles and responsibilities of the anti-ragging cell and the Anti-Ragging Squad.

REPORT:

The event commenced at 11:30 AM with a welcome address by Dr Sreelekshmi C Warrier, Nodal Officer, who emphasized the gravity of the issue and underscored the importance of maintaining a safe and respectful learning environment for all students.

Dr Ajayan Tankyan, Anti-Ragging Squad Conveor, provided an insightful introduction to the functioning of the Anti-Ragging Squad. He elaborated on the squad's proactive role in detecting and preventing incidents of ragging, promoting a culture of mutual respect, and offering support to victims.

Prof. (Dr.) Suresh S, Principal shared a comprehensive overview of the various facets of anti-ragging measures. He emphasized the institution's commitment to maintaining a ragging-free campus and the severe consequences that could result from engaging in such activities.

The orientation Programme reached its culmination with a thought-provoking video screening that addressed the issue of anti-ragging. The video effectively highlighted the emotional and psychological impact of ragging on victims, further underscoring the need for collective efforts to prevent such behavior. He highlighted the UGC's regulations aimed at preventing ragging and ensuring the well-being of students. A total of 68 students and 2 teaching faculty attended the Programme.
