DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE-COMMERCE ASSOCIATION
ADD-ON COURSE ON DYNAMICS OF SERVICE SECTOR
COURSE CODE: (CAC012019)

INTRODUCTION

The service sector is the largest and fastest growing sector in India and has the highest labor productivity, but employment has not kept pace with the share of the sector in gross domestic product and has not produced the number or quality of jobs needed. The major factors responsible for the high growth of the service sector include high-income elasticity of demand, structural and technological changes in the Indian economy, the revolution of information technology, and growth in demand for manufacturing industries after the economic start. Service sector encourages some valuable services like health services, educational facilities, IT, and IT-enabled services (ITEs), skill development, health tourism, sports, cultural services, etc. The service sector in India is the fastest growing service sector in the whole world. And this sector provides a good amount of Employment to the citizens of India. The service sector of India shares almost 66% of the Indian GDP.

Programme Objective:

This Certificate Course is introduced with the intention of creating awareness about the different careers & prospects in the service sectors. In this course we intend to inform the students the various career options available to them in different service sectors. The other reason was to inform them the courses they can do along with or after their graduation to have a successful career in various service industries and the skill sets they should develop to procure the opportunities offered by various service sectors. A personality test would also be administered in order to help students identify their personality attributes, so as to help them focus on areas where they have intrinsic potentials to succeed.
